

Soft Red Winter • MEDIUM LATE

AM 566

NEW

high performance wheat

Maturity	Medium Late
Head Type	Bearded
Height	Medium

- Versatile across environments
- High yield potential across all acres
- Resistant to Hessian Fly biotypes B, D, L, O
- Nice robust profile with good tillering
- Good test weight
- Good stripe rust scores

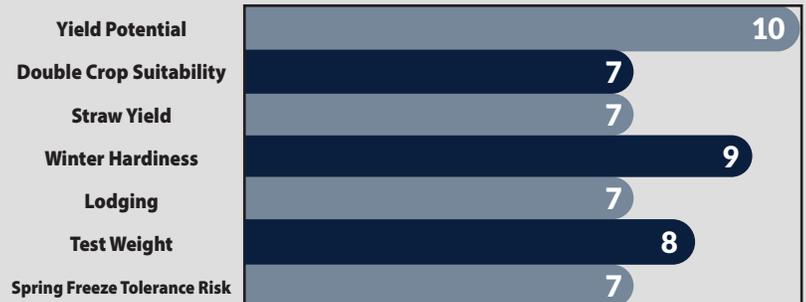

AM 566 has put together several impressive years of testing in the East, beating the popular AM 516 and earning its way into the lineup. Growers will like the broad adaptability of AM 566 and its go-anywhere placement style. AM 566 delivers peace of mind with Hessian Fly resistance, strong disease resistance, good stress tolerance and elite yield potential. We've seen nice responses to high management programs using fungicides as well. It's a winner.
